Coach Vaughan's Message

The 1965 Indians were not a big ball club physically. They were not champions. They were a group of fine young men who through sheer determination, desire, pride and hard work made themselves into a fine football team. It was a football team with a big heart.

It was my honor to be their coach. The association and experiences we had as player and coach were most enjoyable and gratifying. I will always remember the 1965 Indians for their fine attitude, character, and fighting spirit. They were true champions in so many ways.
